

BUFFALO SOLDIERS

TROOPER RACHEL HILLIARD has been a member of the San Diego Chapter Buffalo Soldiers since 2005.

Rachel delights audiences with her command performance of Private William Cathay, the only female Buffalo Soldier.

She is a native of California, born and raised in San Diego in a strong Christian family with three brothers and two sisters. Her faith, friends and family values are most important to her. She is the proud mother of beautiful daughter and talented grandson. Rachel loves to travel, play tennis, ride horses and spend time with friends and family. She is grateful for the contributions of her family' heritage, both African and Indian.

Rachel is employed by the Department of the Navy, a life member of Toastmasters International, American Tennis Association, and National Association, 9th & 10th (Horse) Cavalry Association Buffalo Soldiers.
