

BUFFALO SOLDIERS

TROOPER DORSIE DAVIS

Dorsie is originally from Hope, Arkansas, he moved to San Diego in 1950 and found great possibilities for his family, so decided to move his mother, father, brothers and sister to live and make a new start. Dorsie has worked many jobs since moving here and seen great changes, at Pickwick Hotel, he had a Shoe Shine stand in a Barber Shop downtown, worked at the Roxy Theatre in Pacific Beach, then worked at North Island, in 1952 he decided to enlist in the Air Force for six months as a parachuter, worked as a rigger earning $95.00 per month. Later interest was in building construction for Guy Hatfield Homes, there he used his knowledgge and savings to invest in flipping homes. Dorsie retired as investor.

Today, Dorsie spends his time with wife and family with yearly trips to visit to Honduras.

Dorsie attended the Buffalo Soldiers Anniversary in Los Angeles, where he, Elizabeth Nelson and Founder, Vincent Lemons received the Charter for the San Diego Chapter in 2002 and has been a faithful member and life member of National, Nineth and Tenth (Horse) Cavalry Association.
